

London Welsh Male Voice Choir presents

London Welsh Festival of Male Choirs

An unforgettable night of song

Since 1969, the London Welsh Festival of Male Choirs has thrilled audiences with its joyful celebration of Male Voice singing. Now, after a short hiatus, the Festival returns to the Hall, uniting once more a massed choir of 800 voices from around the world to create the unique wall of sound for which it is renowned.

Enjoy a diverse evening of song with a repertoire that ranges from Classical music to popular hits, new commissions and, of course, traditional Welsh Male Voice hymns and arias.

Nothing feeds the soul quite like the experience of joining together in song, so prepare to be lifted to your feet to join in with the congregational hymns as we raise the roof of this majestic venue.
